Large numbers of boys and girls are soon to be sent from the elementary grades to the high school. Parents should be vitally interested in this epoch of the child life. There is more danger in the child being sent to high school too soon than in its being kept in the grade school too long. There should be no "railroading" for the sake of mere numbers or to make a vain showing. Such follies are only to be paid for in the wreck of intellectual lives.

We have always contended that a school is the real neighborhood center and should be the seat of all neighborhood activities which have for their end the social, moral and educational uplift of the patrons.

It seems inconsistent with this idea that the graduating exercises of the school should be held at some point far away from the center simply for the sake of making a big display at the cost of not being witnessed by the persons most interested.

Young men and women of our race who are doing well upon the farms or in the smaller towns should be contented and stay away from the big cities. The mad rush for city life is making us all poorer financially and weaker morally and spiritually. Stay on the farm and build up something substantial, something free from the narrow, selfish greed of the city. The meager, hand-to-mouth existence in the metropolis has no compensation. The imaginary joys of the city are in most instances merely the paths of peril and the roads of ruin.

The Duntley Pneumatic Sweeper, of which Mr. J. W. Duntley was the originator, is one of the best sweepers used today and housewives and maid alike are loud in their praises of this excellent sweeper, which saves a vast amount of labor and removes dust and dirt in a sanitary way at a trifling cost. Every family should have one in their homes.

The solo by Mrs. D. A. Holmes of Springfield, Mo., at Allen Chapel last Sunday, was magnificently rendered. Her voice being one of the most pleasing and delightful heard in this city for years. The vast audience could only be restrained with difficulty in voicing its appreciation in vigorous applause. Allen wants to hear Mrs. Holmes again.

The graduating exercises of the Negro department of the General Hospital at Allen's Chapel last Monday night was the most entertaining and delightful affair of its kind ever witnessed in this city. Dr. Wm. J. Tompkins, Kansas City's brilliant Negro physician and surgeon, gave a most interesting history of the colored department of the General Hos-

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

"I am come that they might have life; and that they might have it more abundantly," John, 10:10.

There should have been at least one thousand girls with as many more young women to have heard Miss Anna H. Jones the well known Educator as she spoke at our splendid Vesper Service last Sunday. The subject of her very able and thoroughly interesting address was "That our Daughters may be as Corner Stones polished after the Similitude of a Palace." The service was held in Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church of which the Rev. J. R. Richardson is pastor. Miss D. May Lee an eloquentist from Ilwa rendered by special request "Hagar the Bondswoman." The closing remarks were made by Rev. Richardson. The Japanese Tea Party given by the Sorosis Club composed of prominent women in the two Kansas Cities at the Yates Young Women's Christian Association of May 25, proved an enjoyable occasion. About thirty persons were in attendance. The program was furnished by Miss Lucinda C. Dixon, Miss Margaret Banks, Misses Mable B. and Pauline Vaughan, Miss Rosa Bouchell, Miss Eloise Cole, and Lawyer Wm. B. Bruce. The latter was speaker and gave an address on "Charity."

Rev. S. C. Casmon, the champion young speaker of Kansas City, will speak at the Morning Star Baptist Church, 2311 Vine street, Rev. G. H. Daniels, pastor, Sunday, May 31, at 7:30 p. m., on "The Developed Manhood of the Race." Don't fail to hear him.—Adv.

NEGRO CHRISTIAN STUDENT CONVENTION.

The first meeting of the Negro Christian Students Convention convened at Atlanta, Ga., May 14-18, which is to the Negro what the Student Volunteer Movement which convened in Kansas City the first of the year is to the white people. The object of this Convention is, first, to give to the present generation of Negro students in the United States a strong spiritual and moral impulse. Second, to study with thoroughness their responsibility for leadership in Christian work at home and abroad, thus bringing them face to face with Christian life callings.

Third, to face the responsibility resting upon the Negro churches of America to help the claims and crisis of Africa.

Fourth, to consider what light Christian thought may throw on present and future co-operation between the races. The Convention was a complete success and all feel that a greater organization does not exist. Number of male students, 288; female students, 182; teachers and professors, 42; speakers and visitors, 149; grand total attending Convention, 641; schools represented, 81; different states, 18; Y. M. C. A., 18; Y. W. C. A., 38. Foreign countries, 4; other attendants, pastors, bishops, missionaries and editors. Some of the most prominent leaders of the age were present. Dr. John R. Mott, General Secretary of the World's Student Christian Federation, presided over the Convention. Throughout the session the spirit of the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man eminently prevailed.

THE NEGRO NATIONAL EDUCATIONAL CONGRESS APPEALS FRENCH JOURNALIST.

J. Silas Harris President of the Negro National Educational Congress is in receipt of the following letter from M. Ide Bismont the famous French writer and Journalist of Paris.

141 Rue de l'Universite, Paris, France, May 6, 1914.

Mr. J. Silas Harris, Kansas City, Mo., U. S. A.

Dear Sir: I am a sympathizer with your ideas. I am a writer and desire some information relative to the American Negro. Kindly send me any books, or other publications you may have, bearing upon the work of your most worthy organization. Is the Negro type changing in America? Do they lose something of their mental type by living in America? How do they compare with the white youth in mentality, when educated in the same schools? I shall be pleased to have you call should you ever visit Paris.

Yours faithfully,
M. IDE BISMONT.

Mrs. Sarah J. Wheeler an aged and highly respected Colored Citizen of Bonner Springs, Kansas, died at the residence of her daughter Mrs. Lock, May 12 at the age of 82. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. M. Gilbert, Pastor of the First Baptist Church, assisted by Rev. J. B. Wallace, Bonner Springs, Kansas. Mrs. Wheeler had lived a clean, consistent Christian life for more than 60 years. Four sons, two daughters, eleven grandchildren and may relatives survive her. She was a woman of great physical endurance and strong character, a pleasing and entertaining conversationalist and a ready reader of human character. Her memory of passages in the Holy Scripture was remarkable. After fifty years of age she learned to read readily many passages from the Bible. Her remains were sent for enternment Monday morning to Bucklin, Mo. accompanied by the family and the Rev. Dr. Thomas, Pastor of Allen Chapel, Mrs. Wheeler has lived a long life. She has passed away but she has left the world better for having lived in it. May her noble life and christian character ever be an inspiration to us all to so live and act each day that when we have passed away it can be said of us we made the world better by having lived in it.

We cannot say and we will not say That Our mother is dead; she's just away

With a cherry smile and a wave of the hand She has wandered into an unknown land And left us dreaming how very fair It needs must be since she lingers there

The sweetest love of her life She gave to simple things The harsh chirp of the little brown thrush

Was as dear to her as the sweet notes of the Mocking bird. And she pitted as much a writhing honey bee wet with rain

As a human soul in pain We will always think of her as the same She is not dead. She's just away.

—That if meat keeps going up only the rich can get it.

—That X-Ray dresses are to be thinner than ever. How can they?

—That a man is not fashionable if he does not "press" his hair. (If it's bad stuff.)

—That among the June weddings scheduled is that of a recently divorced couple of prominence.

—That its high time judging from some women you meet, the Free Public Baths were opened.

—That the ladies are complaining because enough male guests are not invited to social functions.

—That a certain preacher had to stay locked in a clothes closet for two hours until hubby went back to his work.

—That if all the 18th street merchants would sweep their walks it would help the appearance of the street very much.

—That business has become so good they have run a pipe line from a certain saloon to a nearby rooming house. (That's a pipe, sure.)

—That a determined "Pa" in view of a certain circumstance, said his daughter would be a 1914 June bride or there would be a new duke in heaven. (Better hurry dude.)

We are giving you a good paper.

Don't you think you ought to pay us?

BE STEADFAST.

Do not be alarmed because you heard that some one said something not complimentary about you. People have always said ugly things about those who struggle to be, and are achieving something; those against whom there is nothing said, are negligible quantities—people talk about those who are doing good. You go ahead, like the ancient philosopher, who when he was asked by an apparent friend, who really desired to help the old sage, what he could do for him, replied: "Please stand out of my sunshine." That is all the alert, energetic aspiring young person asks; "stand out of my sunshine."
